Band

The band was very busy this year. Practice for the field show started the first week of school with a new color guard to enhance the look of the band. The Field Show Competition was held at Northern Illinois University where the band placed third in its class, but ten points above its next closest competitor, DeKalb High School, a school of 2000 students. On October 17, the band played at a ceremony to dedicate a monument to the early Norwegian settlers of this area. The band also placed second in the Grundy County Corn Festival Parade, for which they received a beautiful trophy.

Our fearless leader, Mr. Sebby.

Band Officers this year were Wayne Kellogg, Pres.; Mark Arentsen, V. Pres.; Kay Kember, Treas.; and Carol Rohrer, Sec.

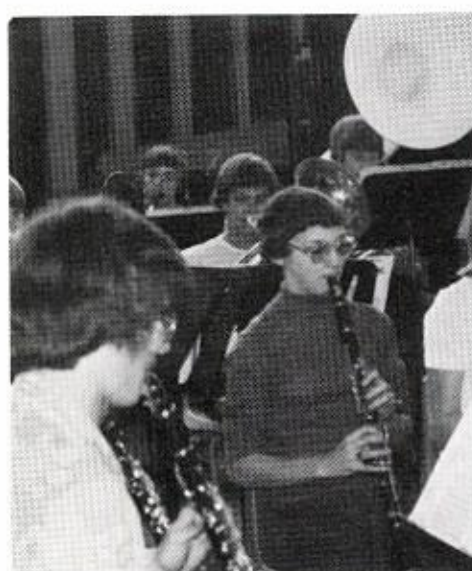

Martha and Mary Butterfield were the only members of this year's band to receive a Superior rating at solo and ensemble contest. Mary's flute solo and Martha's clarinet solo received firsts, along with their flute-clarinet duet.

Winter activities included a Christmas Concert with the Chorus, playing for basketball games and pep assemblies, and a concert for the area grade schools. Spring activities included the solo and ensemble contest, Little 10 Band Festival, and Band Organization Contest, Spring Concert, and Marching at the Sheridan Memorial Day Parade. The audiences seeing the Junior Play soon realized that a name can be "deadly." The name in question was Ernest. There's nothing startling or even unusual about the name—except to one Henry Gilcrest. You see, just the name Ernest sends Henry into shock. It all started when Henry's boss fired him and his girl friend threw him overboard and Aunt Ethel ordered him from her boarding house because of no rent money. Well, poor homeless, girl-less and jobless Henry, spending the night in a park, meets one, Mr. Bumpus. He pours out his troubles to Mr. Bumpus, who tells him life has dealt him a miserable blow and he has a friend named Ernest who, for only $17.83, gets poor downtrodden souls like Henry out of their misery. So Henry, in his pitiful, forlorn condition, pays the money, goes back home and finds (1) Aunt Ethel is ready to forgive him, (2) his girl wants another chance, (3) his boss has given him a raise, (4) life was never happier and better and —BOING—he remembers he's paid his last cent to someone named Ernest to get him out of the world. Needless to say, he's really in misery now, especially when virtually everyone he encounters is named Ernest. There's Margie's beau, Ernie. (Margie is Aunt Ethel's daughter.) Ernie hails from Texas, and Henry just knows he's a gun-slinger. Then there's old maid Ernestine who's writing a murder mystery. Henry hears her discussing it with her sister, Clarissa, and thinks they're plotting his demise. Then there's C.E. Grimm, head of the Grimm Harvester Company, and maker of the very famous Grimm Reaper. Henry misconstrues the facts and thinks he is the "grim reaper" and he's come after him. Well, a doctor is called for Henry. And his name? You guessed . . . Dr. Ernest. As fate would have it, Mr. Bumpus and a friend came looking for a room and when Henry sees them, well that really puts the icing on the cake. Things now reach a fever pitch, because poor Henry—weak from fright—finally goes to Mr. Bumpus and demands "payment in full," immediately, so he'll be out of his dismal misery. And imagine Mr. Bumpus consternation. You see, he never planned on seeing Henry again, thinking the deal would be just a simple way to get some money. So now he has to carry out his part of the bargain. So the—

Everyone enjoyed and laughed at every single character in this play. It was a job well done by the cast, crew, and director.

Fumiya was the fourth foreign student we have had in our school, but he was the first from Japan and also the first to be with us for a full school year. Fumiya was a very worthwhile experience for the entire student body. We knew he had to go home but it made us sad to see him leave.

SPECIAL AWARDS

This year's American Legion Auxilliary delegate to Illini Girls' State was Judy Scheppler. Her alternate was Cathy Thompson. The girls who attend Girls' State set up and run a mythical state including cities and counties to learn about our government. This year Illini Girls' State was held June 19-26 at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Illinois.

Cathy Thompson, for the second year, is the first place winner of the local Voice of Democracy essay contest, also sponsored by the American Legion. This year, Cathy is also a county winner. The contest consists of writing an essay and reading it for local competition. For county competition, it is read over the radio to many listeners—not an easy task!

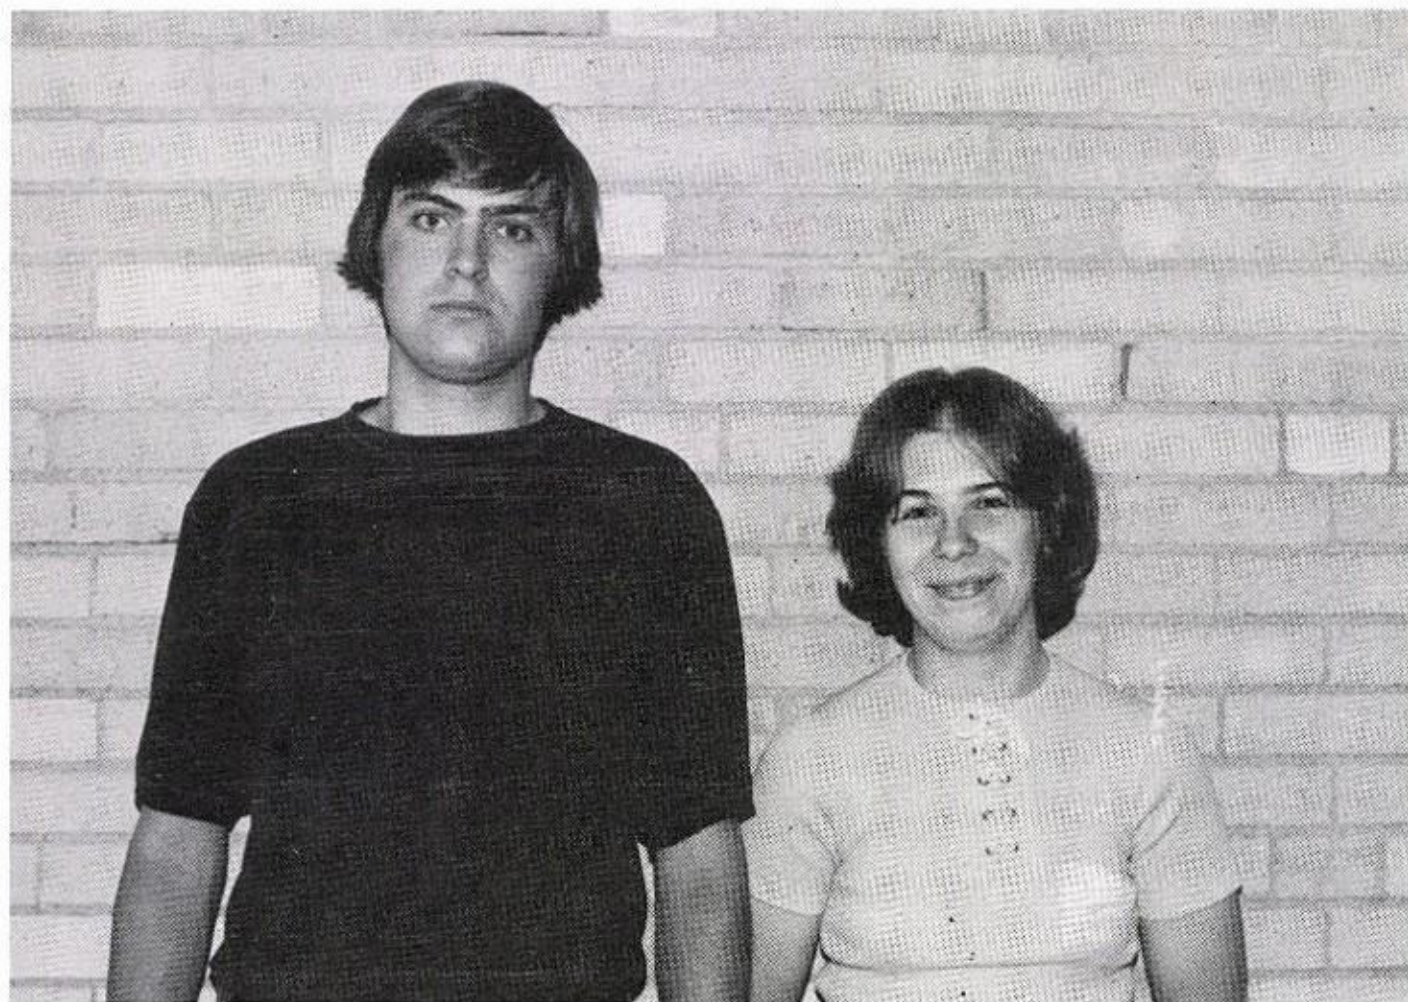

FFA members can boast many outstanding accomplishments this year. Seven members were Section 7 Foundation Award winners. They are Ron Riveland—Rural Electrification; Ron Glover—Agriculture Mechanics; Paul Pitstick—Corn Production; Steve Walsh—Farmstead Beautification; Craig Larson—Sheep Production; Brad Warren—Livestock Production; and Connie Hoxsey—Horse Production. Two members also won at the District 2 contest: Ron Riveland—Electrification and Connie Hoxsey—Horse Production. Also, for the first time since 1952, Serena FFA has a state winner. Ron Riveland was selected as the State winner in Electrification and is eligible for National competition.

The Special Olympics were held this year at Monmouth College, Monmouth Illinois on Saturday, May 8. This year's participants from S.H.S. were Cindy Halsey and Richard Bushnell. Richard and Cindy both participated and did very well in the 50 yard dash and softball throw.

Steve Marshall and Phyllis Stockley are this year's only Illinois State Scholars. They received this award by scoring very highly on the ACT test. This award is a great honor.

Art Awards

This year's winners of the Lions Club Pancake and Sausage Supper Poster Contest were:

First: Mark Arentsen

Second: Kim Nordtvedt

Third: Diane Petersen

Winners of the FFA Pork Shop Supper Poster Contest were:

First: Cindy Stegman

Second: Sonja Anderson

Cindy Stegman also received an art scholarship to attend Eastern Illinois University this fall. She was required to submit a portfolio of art work to be judged by a committee of EIU professors.

Diane Petersen has also won her share of art awards. She was selected to attend a one-week art workshop this summer at Allerton Park, Monticello, Illinois. Diane is sponsored by the Sheridan Womens' Club.

Diane also received a first place and an Honorable Mention for participating in the Ottawa Town and Country Art Show.

Many students participated in an art show in Sheridan sponsored by the Sheridan Bicentennial Committee. The participants received ribbons for their work. They were:

Platteville Winners

On April 29 and 30, seven students from Serena High School traveled to the University of Wisconsin, Platteville, to compete in nine different vocational areas. Each year more schools take part in the competition events. These students should be extremely proud to bring home first place sweepstakes with the level of competition at an all time high. Individual awards were won by:

Hally Brown.....	3rd place	Photographic Prints
Bob Scheppler.....	3rd place	House Wiring
Don Nelson.....	3rd place	Power Technology
Paul Wiley.....	3rd place	Power Technology
Kenny Kozloski.....	3rd place	Welding
Barry Brannan.....	2nd place	Wood Technology
Don Nelson.....	1st place	Wood Technology
Craig Larson.....	1st place	Metal Machining

The first place team trophy in Welding was won by Kenny Kogloski, Craig Larson, and Barry Brannan. The first place team trophy in Photographic Prints was won by Hally Brown, Steve Marshall, and Greg Conklin. The first place team trophy in Wood Technology was won by Don Nelson, Barry Brannan, and Dale Graffius. The second place team trophy in Graphic Arts Typography was won by Bob Scheppler, Don Nelson, Kenny Kozloski, Dale Graffius, and Barry Brannan. The second place team trophy in Metal Machining was won by Barry Brannan, Craig Larson, Bob Scheppler, and Don Nelson. The first, second, and third place team position in each area are totaled and given points 7, 5, and 3, respectively. Serena's point total earned them the first place overall Sweepstakes Trophy in class C.

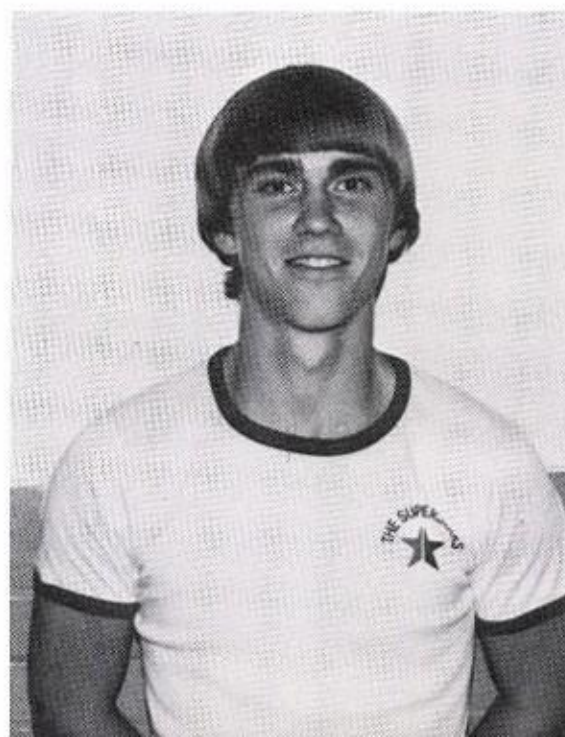

Girl Sports

This year's girls have done a great job in sports—individual, as well as in teams. Three of the many outstanding seniors are Cindy Stegman, Joy Grunstad, and Sonja Anderson. Cindy was voted M.V.P. of Volleyball and Sonja was voted captain. Cindy was also voted M.V.P. of soccer and Joy received the M.V.P. award for track.

Tennis Tournament

This spring Serena High School held their second inter-school Tennis Tournament. Over thirty participants stormed the tennis courts and this year's tournament proved to be as much of a success, or more, than last year's. This year's winner, again, is Jim Hitchins and runner-up is Martin Yoesle. With two previous wins behind him, next year, Jim will have to keep on his toes to overcome all of the challengers opposing a winner.
